

Second Grade Fun!

October 15, 2009

Mrs. Bray's Room 16

Week at a glance

This week we read Wilson Sat Alone. This is a realistic fiction story of friendship. The little boy in the story learns how to make friends by being a friend. Ask you student about it. The phonic skill this week worked on blends. We continue changing the y to i and adding ed (ied).

In language arts, have been working on telling parts of the sentence. We continue with correct punctuation marks in the sentence.

Please study your math facts. Addition and subtraction strategies are a huge part of our math curriculum throughout the year. We also started the double

We continue weather in science. This week we looked at clouds and made a rain gauge. We have been tracking the weather all week.
