Class News

Week of January 9 -13

Welcome back!

It has been nice getting back in the routine of school. Next week will be a short week again. We will celebrate MLK day on Monday and teacher in-service on Friday.

However, we will continue with our studies. We will study the spelling pattern from our curriculum—expect to see the pre-test. We won't have a grade post-test. We will read our story from our anthology and have a reading comprehension test. Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns.
